1876.

No. 3 John street, New York.

The undersigned respectfully begs to call the attention of amateurs to the superb collection of rare prints, described in this Catalogue, comprising most important works by the Old Masters, in impressions of unsurpassed beauty, such as Lucas von Leyden's Adoration, Raimondi's St. Cæcilia, Dürer's Adam and Eve, St. Jerome in his Cell, Prodigal Son, and St. Hubertus, Schoengauer's Gethsemane and Temptation of St. Anthony, Rembrandts, Nativity, St. Peter and St. Paul, and Goldweigher, Van Meckens St. Martin, and Genealogy of Jesus Christ, Campagnola's Battle, etc.; also to the works of the great portrait engravers Drevet, Edelinck, Masson, Nanteuil, Wille, Schmidt, etc., which are fully represented by unusually brilliant impressions, many of them first states.

Besides the engravings mentioned in this Catalogue, I have on hand a very large collection of modern etchings and engravings.

Many years experience in this business enable me to import rare prints to order, on the most reasonable terms.

Assortments of engravings will be sent on approval.

HERMANN WUNDERLICH.
